Substrate Independence

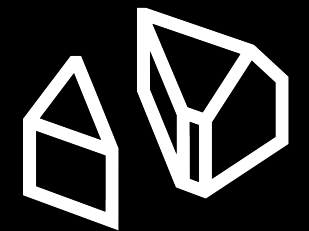

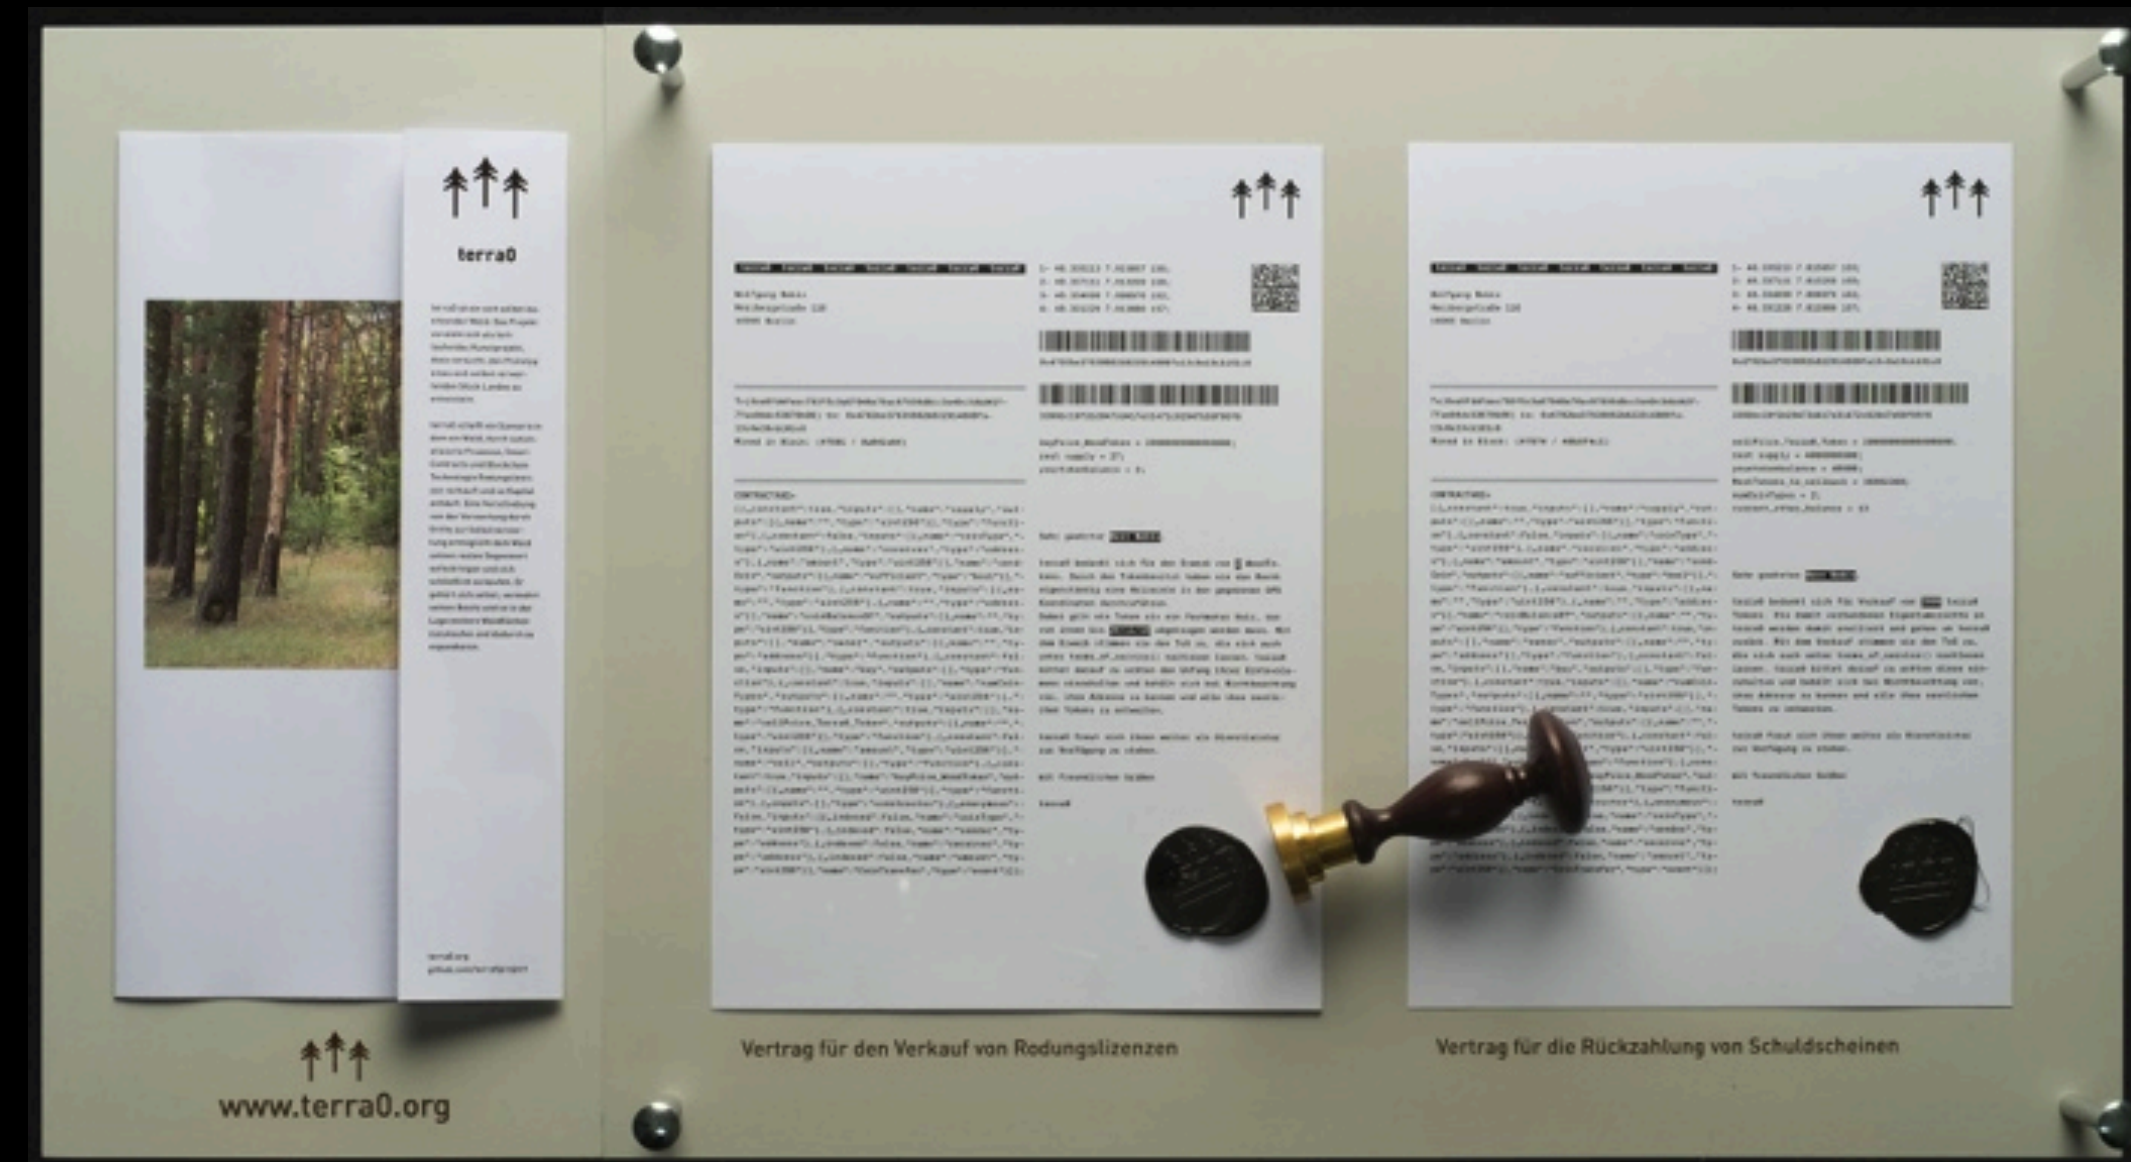

“What do waves, computations and conscious experiences have in common, that provides crucial clues about the future of intelligence? They all share an intriguing ability to take on a life of their own that’s rather independent of their physical substrate.”

The DAO - RIP IN PEACE

The screenshot shows the top of a Coindesk article. The navigation bar includes the Coindesk logo and links for Blockchain 101, Technology, Markets, Business, Data & Research, and Consensus. A yellow banner below the navigation bar contains the text "Don't Miss Dr. Mohamed A. El-Erian from Allianz/PIMCO at Consensus: Ir". The main article header features a blue background with the text "THE DAO IS CODE." in white and green, followed by a red button that says "GET DAO TOKENS". Below this is the article title "The DAO: Or How A Leaderless Ethereum Project Raised $50 Million" in white. A row of social media sharing icons (Twitter, Facebook, Google+, LinkedIn, Reddit, Email) is positioned below the title. The author's name, "Michael del Castillo", is shown with a profile picture and social media icons, along with the publication date "May 12, 2016 at 21:19 UTC" and an update date "Updated Jul 30, 2017 at 16:02 UTC". A grey button labeled "FEATURE" is located to the right of the author information.
